Mickler-Ellis

Last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Ellis, occurred the marriage of their daughter Alice, to Mr. Malcolm P. Mickler, of Leesburg, Florida.

The wedding was a very quiet one with only a few friends of the bride present. Rev. Geo. T. Pratt performed the marriage ceremony using the Episcopal service, and Miss Mae Worden presided at the piano playing Lohengrins wedding march. The house was beautifully decorated in Oregon grape, pine and smilax with white roses and pansies. Mr. D. B. Campbell was the groom's attendant, and little Miss Neva Faught was flower girl. The bride carried a bouquet of white carnations and ferns.

The Misses Edna Houston, Hazel Rolfe and Florence Roorey assisted in serving the wedding supper.

Mr. and Mrs. Mickler left this morning for Upper Lake points and on their return will leave for Leesburg, Florida, where they will make their home, and where Mr. Mickler is engaged in the banking business, being President of the Leesburg State Bank.

Mrs. Mickler leaves many friends in Klamath County who join in good wishes, but regret her leaving their circle for a home so far away.

No Late Indictments

The grand jury still continues in session, but no indictments have been returned since yesterday noon.

J. J. Arant was arraigned before Judge Benson and entered a plea of not guilty to the indictment charging him with the larceny of a calf. Upon request of the defense the case was continued until 11 o'clock, and then it was again continued until the afternoon session where a motion was made by the defense asking for a continuance until the Fall term. Practically the entire afternoon was spent in arguing this motion, and as the Herald goes to press it has not been decided by Judge Benson.

The "Merry Widow"

"Tickets sold six weeks ahead" was the standing answer which met the public at the box office of one of the largest theaters in New York where "The Merry Widow" was played an entire season to packed houses.

Of New York's floating population of a hundred thousand a day who go to the theaters nearly all saw the "Merry Widow" and went back home to talk about it. Hence "The Merry Widow" is on everybody's lips, the talk of the hour, the sensation of the day.

The story written from the play by Albert Payson Terhune who wrote "The Man of the Hour" will appear in the Evening Herald commencing Saturday June 20. Do not fail to get the first installment of this great story. If you are not already a subscriber, order the Herald at once. The subscription price of the Herald is fifty cents a month delivered.

The illustrated constitute one of the strong attractions of the story. Ryder, after seeing the play a number of times had Ethel Jackson, who took the part of the "Merry Widow" pose for the drawings from which the cuts are made.
